FLORENCE'S BEST SUITES

The Medicis made Florence a center of art, trade, beauty and glamour that has never ceased to attract visitors in search of its grand past. Now, thanks to a host of new hotels, suite renovations in old favorites and one private residence club, this city is undergoing a whole new renaissance.

VILLA MANGIACANE

ROYAL SUITE

Key selling points: This grand Italian villa on the outskirts of Florence was originally designed for the Mangiacane family with a grand suite terrace that overlooks the Chianti hills and Florentine skyline with the Duomo taking center-stage. A silver Indian wedding bed (much larger than a king bed), fireplace, steam bath and Jacuzzi inspire guests to play duke for a day.

Standout services: Personal tasting of Mangiacane's three wines and one-on-one cooking classes are musts.

Style: Classic Italian Villa, 2006

Special amenities: Bath products by Officina de Tournabuoni, Mangiacane olive oil, personal hammam, complimentary wine

Square footage: 2,152

Number of rooms in suite: Three

Number of bathrooms: One and one half-bath

Number of rooms and suites in hotel: 26

Who's slept here? Mario Batali, Sting, Rothschild family, Wolfgang Puck, executives from Bentley motors

Nightly rate: $4,300

Location: Via Faltignano, San Casciano
